Francesco Chiapperini's
InSight
Paradigm Shift

Francesco Chiapperini: compositions, bass and soprano clarinet; Simone Lobina: electric guitar, effects; Simone Quatrana: piano and electric piano

"Insight" - literally "interior vision" - is a term that refers to intuition as an instantaneous and sudden enlightenment.
This concept underlies the music of Paradigm Shift by InSight, the trio led by musician and composer Francesco Chiapperini.

In these compositions, the space usually given to the traditional rhythm section of drums and bass disappears, replaced by an unusual line-up of instruments. Clarinets, piano and electric guitar merge melody and rhythm, with continuous interplay and swap of roles.

Gloomy or epic melodic lines and persistent percussive sections give to the three musicians the freedom to distance themselves or to overlap with those elements, balancing between written and improvised parts.

The music of InSight serenely invites the listeners to search inside themselves for unexpected, far, misty landscapes.
